

Survey

1. What did you like best about this activity? Explain in detail.
2. What concepts and ideas did you learn?
3. Would you want to do something similar again? Explain why or why not.
4. Give four or five examples where static equilibrium exists in your everyday life.
(static equilibrium = not moving)
5. From what you learned in this activity, what are some of the roles of engineers?